

Bequests, or gifts from estates, have positively impacted The Pennington School and its students over the years. Many of the existing scholarships and transformational gifts that are central to the education of our students originated through the estates of our generous alumni, parents, and friends.

A bequest:

- Is easy to arrange.
- Does not affect your assets or cash flow during your lifetime.
- Can be easily modified to address your changing needs.

Specific bequests are used to make a gift of a specific dollar amount or asset (securities, real estate, or personal property). Residuary bequests are used to give all or a portion of the remainder of your estate after payment of expenses and any other amounts designated to beneficiaries.

The following are several examples of suggested bequest wording to benefit The Pennington School. Alumni, parents, and friends are encouraged to share final will provisions with The Pennington School to ensure that your wishes will be properly followed and recognized.
